Creekside Landing is a truly special place where couples, friends, and seniors with varying care needs can stay close as they age. Nestled alongside Vernon Creek in Vernon, BC, our community offers stunning views of the Okanagan Valley and beautiful surroundings that make every day feel a little brighter. Residents can stroll along secure paths, relax in the outdoor seating area, or cross the charming bridge that connects to Osprey Court, our 96-bed long-term care home located right on the same property. Being able to move between Creekside Landing and Osprey Court means you can stay near the people who matter most, no matter what level of care you need.

Our Assisted-Living residence offers studio, one-bedroom, and two-bedroom suites for seniors who want to retain their independence, but need some support with daily activities or would like to live in a community setting with affordable rates. All suites have air-conditioning and include a kitchenette with a sink, small fridge, and microwave. There are 24 government-subsidized beds and 14 private pay beds.

Creekside Landing is more than just a place to live, it's a community full of warmth, laughter, and friendship. Come by for a visit, explore the grounds, and see for yourself why so many people love calling Creekside Landing home.
